Road trips

The Organizing Committee invites you to discover our magnificent region by taking part in several trips.

Friday, June 7, 2024

Through a 130 km trip (also 170 km as an option), discover the Pre-Alps at your leisure. On small roads, you'll wind your way from the plains to the mountains, passing through forests, small villages and magnificent landscapes ...

A roadbook and GPS track will be given to you on arrival at the reception desk. Departure is free, ideally in the morning, to take advantage of the various possibilities offered on the route.

Midday stopover at the "Chalet Grat" mountain bar /restaurant at 1642 m altitude.

A must-see stopover in the small villages ...

Saturday June 8 - Morning - Registration required (places are limited)

Visit to the 'Grottes de l'Ermitage de la Madeleine'

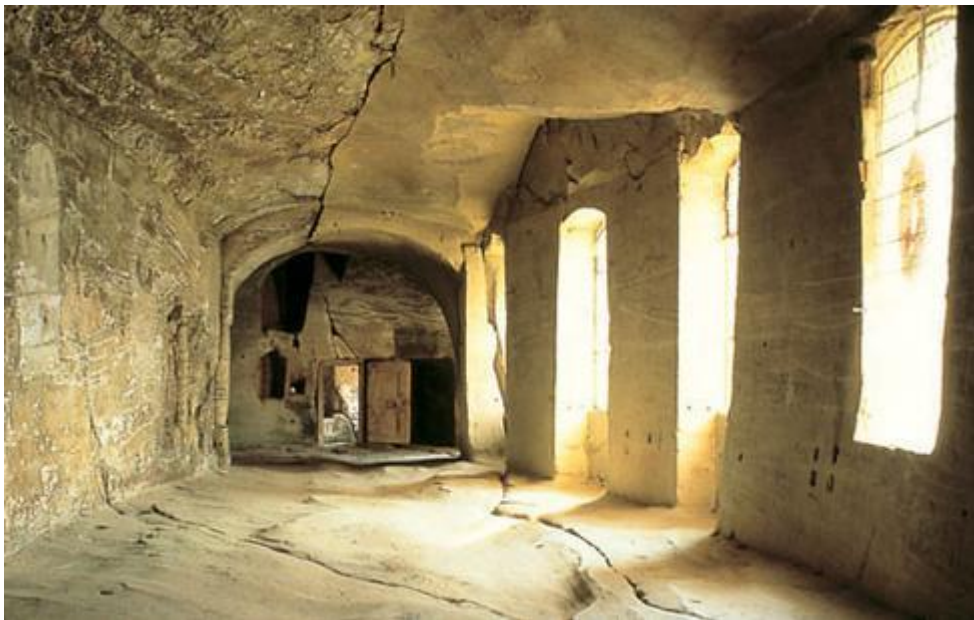

Close to Fribourg, the caves were dug into the cliffs overlooking the artificial Schiffenen lake. They are known for 1448 years, two hermits lived there in the 17th century.

This magical place, with its religious past, is a 120-metre-long cave in the rock and can still be visited nowadays.

During your visit, you'll be walking on fossilized sand dunes from the primary era.

A guide will comment the tour in French.

This escorted trip will be just 50 km and then we will return for lunch to 'Le Mouret'

Saturday June 8 – Afternoon

The second escorted trip of the day (approx. 80 km) takes you to the 'Lac Noir'.

Located at an altitude of 1047 meters, this small natural lake is surrounded by mountains and hills. It offers an idyllic setting for great photos!

For a magnificent view, you can take one of the many ski lifts on site.

Then we'll take you to the Gurnigel. From the top of this 1,609-meter-high pass, a postcard panorama awaits you..
